Before you invest in any fund, consider how the fund would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

The Fund is an alternative mutual fund. It has the ability to invest in asset classes or use investment strategies that are not permitted for conventional mutual funds. The specific strategies that differentiate this Fund from conventional mutual funds include: increased use of derivatives for hedging and non-hedging purposes; increased ability to sell securities short; and the ability to borrow cash to use for investment purposes. While these strategies will be used in accordance with the Fund's investment objectives and strategies, during certain market conditions they may accelerate the pace at which your investment decreases in value.

What does the Fund invest in?

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide unitholders with a positive total return through an actively managed portfolio of primarily North American fixed income securities, by opportunistically utilizing both long and short positions. Through the use of cash borrowing, short selling, or specified derivatives, the Fund's aggregate gross exposure will not exceed 300% of the Fund's net asset value. Notwithstanding the limit, the Fund intends to maintain typical aggregate gross exposure to cash borrowing, short selling and specified derivatives transactions within a range between 80% and 150% of its net asset value.

How risky is it?

The value of the Fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

The Manager has rated this Fund's risk as Low to Medium.

Because the Fund has not distributed its securities under a simplified prospectus, the rating is based on how much the Fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the Fund's returns, see the "What are the risks of investing in the Fund?" section of the Fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the Fund performed?

This section tells you how the Series I Units of the Fund have performed in past calendar years. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the Fund's returns.

Who is this Fund for?

This Fund may be right for you if:

- you are looking for a diversified fixed income fund that strives to preserve capital and generate attractive long-term returns;
- you want a medium or longer-term investment;
- you can tolerate a low to medium level of risk; and
- you can tolerate the Purchase and Redemption Processing Frequency.

A word about tax

In general, you will have to pay tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the Fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, regardless of whether you receive them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series I Units of the Fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost. The Fund has other series of units. The fees and expenses for each series of the Fund are different. Ask about other series of units.

1. Sales Charges:

3. Other Fees:

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch Series I Units of the Fund.

FEE	WHAT YOU PAY
Inappropriate Short-Term Trading	A fee of 2% of the amount switched or redeemed may be charged by the Fund to you for inappropriate short-term trading. The fee goes to the Fund.
Switch and Reclassification Fee	Your representative's firm may charge you a switch fee or a reclassification fee, as applicable, of up to 2% based on the net asset value of the applicable series of units of a Fund you switch or reclassify. You may negotiate the amount with your representative. Dealers' fees for switches and reclassifications are paid by redeeming units held by you.
Management Fee	The annual management fee associated with Series I Units is negotiated and paid by the investor. The management fee will not exceed the management fee payable on Series A Units of the Fund, which is 2.0%.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units within two business days after you receive the simplified prospectus or Fund Facts document, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form, Fund Facts document or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory. For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
